Labor Trouble Idles 100,000 Across Nation

Strikes Slow Production Of Steel; Vital Defense Industries Are Affected

By The Associated Press

A nation-wide strike of 35,000 CIO rubber workers was started today and the number of workers made idle by labor disputes throughout the country soared above 100,000.

The walkout by CIO union work-ers in 19 U. S. Rubber Company plants was the second strike this week involving a vital war mater-ial. The first brought an immediate reduction in steel production. A strike in its third week in Ohio has halted production of jet en-gines used in war planes.

NEARLY 50,000 workers have been made idle in steel and steel-related industries owned by U. S. Steel Corp. in Pennsylvania. The unemployment resulted from a strike started Monday by 1,500 brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on a connecting line serving the company's district plants near-Pittsburgh.

The CIO union employes of the U. S. Rubber Company plants started walking off their jobs after the midnight deadline in contract negotiations. Pickets appeared at

A COMPANY spokesman said no A COMPANY spokesman said no wage issue is involved in the dispute. He said issues included hospitalization, pension plan revision and the length of the new contract. Negotiators planned to meet again today. The union involved is the CIO United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastic Workers of America.

Ica.

The company has three plants in Naugatuck, Conn., employing 8,000; Mishawaka, Ind., 4,500; Detroit, 4,000; Providence, R. I., 3,200; Chipopee Falls, Mass., 3,000; Los Angeles, 3,000; Passaic, N. J., 3,100; Indianapolis 2,500; Fort Wayne, Ind., 1,800; and Bristol, R. I., 1,500. Other glants are in Chicago, Philadelphia, Eau Claire, Wis.; Milan, Tenn.; North Bergen, N. J., Washington, Ind., and Woonsocket, R. I. socket, R. I.

ANOTHER NEW strike which I started today involved 3,500 CIO I utility workers against the South-I ern California Gas Co.

Wages, a union shop and other demands are involved in the dispute over a new contract. The average wage of the workers is $1.85 an hour.

The company serves approxi-mately 1,300,000 customers in 159 1 Southern California communities I with a population of more than 4½ million. A company spokesman said supervisory employes expect to maintain the flow of gas to

IN PITTSBURGH, U. S. Steel officials estimated the BRT strike is costing 25,000 tons of steel daily. I The rail workers quit their jobs it Monday night, protesting 10-day c suspensions of two conductors. The I railroad, wholly-owned subsidiary e of U. S. Steel, claims the men had led a slowdown. Big Steel banked a its furnaces and closed four steelmaking plants, making idle mill, 1 coal and railroad workers.

The strike of 4,500 United Auto Workers and 1,100 AFL Machinists at the General Electric Company plant in Evendale, O., was in its 20th day. The walkout has stopped production of jet engines used in war planes.

There was a rash of strikes in sother Ohio cities, affecting buses in Akron and building trades and produce commission house workers in Columbus and Cincinnati.

In New Jersey, a strike of some 7,000 telephone workers entered its second week with major issues deadlocked.

Operations at the Kankakee unit Operations at the Kankakee unit of Joliet Arsenal, operated by the U. S. Rubber Co., will not be affected by the strike, it was reported by local officials of the firm. The company operations here are not dependent on any supplies from the other plants affected by the strike, it was added.